

Finding Success with T&S:

Central restaurant – Lima, Peru

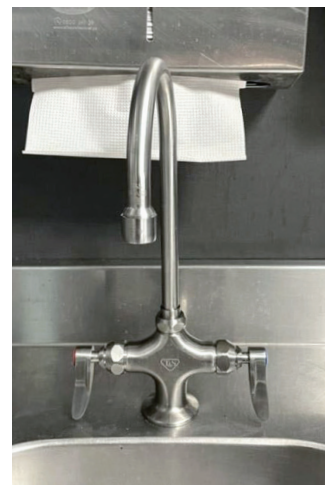

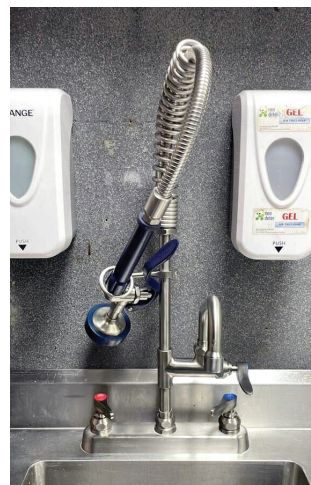

Central restaurant in Lima, Peru, was named “World’s Best Restaurant 2023” for its innovative cuisine using Peruvian ingredients, and their choice of faucets to support their first-class kitchen was EverSteel by T&S Brass.

Background

Central’s relocation presented a unique opportunity for the restaurant to create a new atmosphere and enhance its already stellar reputation. To ensure their plumbing products delivered the same level of excellence as their food and service, Central chose the EverSteel line from T&S Brass.

The best for the best

T&S Brass is renowned for its durability, reliability and longevity, and the EverSteel line is no exception. Crafted with stainless steel, EverSteel products are designed to withstand tough kitchen environments and offer superior performance. Additionally, EverSteel’s aesthetically pleasing polished finish helps reinforce Central’s fine dining atmosphere.

“Central was looking for aesthetically pleasing faucets that could last them for more than just five or 10 years. EverSteel was the best choice, and the restaurant staff is very, very pleased.”

— Roberto Gogin
MerkoLAT business development manager

World-class durability

The EverSteel line from T&S has proven to be a great success for Central, providing the restaurant with reliable stainless-steel plumbing products able to withstand the demands of a world-class kitchen.

Central’s decision to choose T&S Brass for their plumbing needs is a testament to T&S’ quality and commitment to meeting the needs of their customers.
